

EUROCORPS

A FORCE FOR THE EUROPEAN UNION
AND NATO

Major General

Geoffroy de LAROUZIERE

Major General Geoffroy de LAROUZIERE was born in 1966. He is married and has 5 children.

After his training at the Special Military School of Saint-Cyr (1987-1990) he served in Light Infantry Regiments (67th and 27th RI) and the Mountain Infantry Regiment (92nd RI). In 2001, after his deployment to Kosovo, he joined the Senior Staff Course (115th promotion) and then the Joint Defence Course (CID, 10th promotion, 2002/2003).

As head of the operations and training office of the 1st “Régiment de Tirailleurs”, he deployed to Afghanistan (2003), then to Chad as J5 chief, Operation Epervier (2005).

In 2005 he joined NATO at the Joint Force Command in Naples (Italy) as J2 Current Operations Section Head.

Returning to France in 2008, he was assigned to the Military School (Paris) as mentor at the Senior Staff Course.

From June 2010 to November 2012, he commanded the 16th “Bataillon de chasseurs” with whom he deployed to Afghanistan, where he closed the French military presence in the Kapisa Province.

In December 2012 he joined the J5 of the Operations Planning and Conduct Centre (CPCO) of the Joint Staff in Paris. In particular, he was the planning lead for Operation SERVAL in Mali (2013), the preparation for the implementation of the EUFOR RCA operation (2014) and the operational preparation of the French OHQ.

From 2015 to 2019, he held various positions at the Ministry of the Armed Forces, including the Armed Forces Audit Centre.

On 1st of August 2019, he was appointed Deputy Chief of Staff (DCOS) Plans and Environment in the RRC-FR in Lille and was promoted to Brigadier general.

In August 2021, he was in charge of the international relations office of the French Army.

Since 28th of August 2023, Major General Geoffroy de LAROUZIERE, is the Deputy Commander (DCOM) of Eurocorps in Strasbourg.