Brigadier General

Adam MARCZAK

In 1994, Brigadier General Adam MARCZAK graduated from the Land Forces Military Academy in WROCLAW, Poland, and was assigned as Assault Platoon Leader to the 10th Air Assault Battalion, which is the part of the 6th Air Assault Brigade based in CRACOW.

In the course of the following years up to 2011, he held successive positions in the 6th Air Assault Brigade: Commander of the 2nd Assault Company, Operations Officer in S3 Section, of Section S2 Chief, and Chief of Staff and Deputy Battalion Commander of the 16th Airborne Battalion.

In 2011, he joined the Polish Special Operations Forces Command (POLSOFCOM) based in CRACOW as Deputy Chief of the Exercise Division. He was associated with this military unit until 2017 where he finally held the post of Chief of the Certification and Exercise Division.

In 2017, he assumed command of the 25th Air Cavalry Brigade in TOMASZÓW MAZOWIECKI.

From 2020 to 2021, BG MARCZAK served as Chief of the Intelligence and Electronic Warfare Division at the Armed Forces General Command in WARSAW.

Since his appointment and assumption of office in 2021, he holds the position of Deputy Chief of Staff, Support & Enabling EUROCORPS.

Throughout his military career, he has participated in many missions abroad. Between 2005 and 2006, he served for 16 months as Chief of Staff of the Multinational Battalion at EUFOR Bosnia and Herzegovina. In 2009, he served for six months as Deputy Airborne Battle Group Commander at ISAF in Afghanistan. He returned to Afghanistan for two years (between 2015 and 2017) as NATO Chief of Staff at the NATO Special Operations Component Command (NSOCC-A).

BG MARCZAK has completed many courses at the national and international levels including: the Staff Officers Course in Slovakia; Public Security and Crisis Management studies at the Pedagogical University of CRACOW; and Special Operations Forces Staff and Operations courses in Belgium and Poland.